Detective Akira Yusa sees his brother
killed before his very eyes.
Scanning the crowds of Shibuya,
a woman catches his attention
and his cop's intuition tells him:
"She did it!"
He chases her through the streets
into an abandoned building.
She's Kilico Sakaki, an assassin.
And thus begins the trail of blood
that links the two of them.
